I. CALL TO ORDER

Director Steele called to order the regular meeting of the Community Outreach Committee at 12PM on May 10, 2022, in the TVHD Office.

II. ROLL CALL

Directors William Steele, Christine Sherrill; Lisa Hughes, Business Manager and Caroline Wasielewski, CEO; Amanda Danlovich from Adventist Health, and Debby Diamond, representing the Volunteer Senior Outreach Program, were all present.

III. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

The April 14, 2022, meeting minutes from were approved, unanimously, by the committee.

IV. NEW BUSINESS

A. Adventist Health Update

Amanda Danlovich, Community Outreach Associate for Adventist Health, informed the committee that AH continues to give out home COVID-19 test kits. Adventist will have a table at the Farmers Market.

B. VSOP Updates and Opportunities

Debby Diamond and her colleague Jackie spoke to the committee about the Volunteer Senior Outreach Program which is a collaborative effort between Kern County, Behavioral Health & Recovery Services and College Community Services. Ms. Diamond explained services provided for those in need over the age of 60 and how her organization attends to the needs of our senior community. These services help those who are isolated, alone and need to make connections. Ms. Danlovich added that the Adventist Health Behavioral Health program could help these folks as well. Director Steele asked if there was any nutrition counseling with the VSOP program. There is not, but an Adventist Health employee does give Nutrition seminars at eh Senior Center in Tehachapi.

C. DMV Grant Program Update

CEO Wasielewski informed the Board that the 2022 DMV Grant Application for $50,000 to install Electric Vehicle chargers at 115 W E Street has been preliminary approved. More information will follow in July 2022.

D. Adopt-A-Pole

CEO Wasielewski would like TVHD to sponsor an American Flag for $100 that will be displayed on Tehachapi Boulevard from Memorial Day to Veterans Day.

E. Q2 Goals

CEO Wasielewski updated the committee goals for the second quarter.

V. OLD BUSINESS

A. Outreach Updates

Ms. Diamond invited the committee to attend the online meeting of East Kern Collaborative on the 3rd Tuesday at 2pm.

VI. BOARD COMMENTS NOT APPEARING ON THE AGENDA
